

Semester in Scotland

MIN 210 Reformed Evangelism (3 credits)

This course has been designed to take the student through a consideration of this subject which is central to the life of the Church.

It works through the Biblical model which arises from and is driven by who God is and His view of the role His Church must play in the building of His Kingdom. It concludes with a consideration of some of the practical and challenging issues involved in growing an effective, fruitful urban ministry.

The course reading will be:

The Gospel in a Pagan Society by Kenneth Prior

Evangelism and the Sovereignty of God by J. I. Packer

Today's Evangelism by Ernest Reisinger

Planting, Watering, Growing ed. by Daniel Hyde and Shane Lems

Missions: The Biblical Motive and Aim by John M. L. Young

There will be a weekly seminar led by Rev. Andrew Quigley.
