

Semester in Scotland

BIB491 Covenanter History and Theology (3 credits)

This course examines Scottish Reformation and Covenanting History (1517-1688) using primary source documents and on-site historical research. This course looks at the political, social, and theological conditions that led to and developed in this dramatic period of Scottish history.

Course reading is:

The Scottish Covenanters by Johannes G. Vos

Students will attend seminars on Scottish Reformation and Covenanting History led by Mr. Jimmy Fisher. They will spend several days travelling to various Reformation and Covenanting sites throughout Scotland with Mr. Fisher who has led numerous tours of these sites.